HEAD COACH NICK MYERS

Nick Myers is now in his fourth season as head coach for the Ohio State men's lacrosse team. Myers took over the program July 10, 2008 after three seasons as the top assistant for the Buckeyes.

Under Myers, the Buckeye Lacrosse Family continues to set and surpass goals each year. After 26 Buckeyes were named Ohio State Scholar-Athletes in 2010, the team exceeded that with a program-record 28 honorees in 2011. The program has worked with a wide variety of organizations on campus and around Central Ohio, volunteering more than 600 hours in 2010-11 to bypass the program goal of 500 hours entering the year.

In 2009, his first season at the helm of the Buckeye program, Myers led Ohio State (8-8) to a spot in the Great Western Lacrosse League championship game after a third-place finish in the league's regular-season standings despite losing two All-Americans and four all-conference selections from the 2008 squad that reached the NCAA quarterfinals.

Under Myers' tutelage, senior All-American Joel Dalgarno, who finished his career as Ohio State's all-time leading goal scorer and ranks second all-time in points, led the GWLL and was sixth nationally with 3.81 points per game. Dalgarno was joined on the All-GWLL first team by senior defenseman Scott Matthews and another five Buckeyes earned spots on the all-conference second team in midfielder James Green, attackman Jeff Ryan, defensemen Scott Foreman and Matt Kawamoto and goalie Brandon Freeman. Twenty-one Buckeyes were named Ohio State Scholar-Athletes and 16 received Academic All-Big Ten honors.

Continuing the "Showdown in the Shoe," Ohio State surpassed its own national men's lacrosse records for regular-season and on campus attendance set in 2008 when it took on No. 3 Notre Dame in front of 30,192 fans April 25, 2009 in Ohio Stadium.

In 2010, the Buckeyes (7-8) faced one of the toughest schedules in the nation as they began play as a member of the ECAC Lacrosse League. The squad had a 5-2 ledger at home, and highlighting the home slate was the third-annual Showdown in the Show when the Buckeyes topped Air Force with a record attendance of 31,078.

Myers and his staff guided Logan Schuss to league rookie of the year honors as he became the first Buckeye freshman to nab All-America honors after leading the ECAC in points per game. Schuss was a first team all-conference selection, while senior Scott Foreman nabbed a second-team spot.

The 2011 season saw the Buckeyes (8-8) earn a spot in the inaugural ECAC tournament. The team was 5-2 at home, including a 13-8 upset of No. 3-ranked North Carolina Feb. 19 in Ohio Stadium, the program's first win over a Top 3 opponent in history. A record 28 Buckeyes were invited to the Scholar-Athlete dinner, with a league-high 10 Ohio State players named to the ECAC All-Academic team.

Kawamoto picked up ECAC Defensive Player of the Year accolades and was one of four Buckeyes named to the all-conference teams, joining Schuss on the first team with Joe Bonanni and Dominique Alexander second team honorees. Kawamoto went on to earn a USILA All-America honorable mention nod.

Myers, who began his coaching career as the volunteer coach for the Buckeyes for two seasons (2002, '03), spent the 2004 and '05 campaigns as the top assistant coach at Butler before rejoining the Buckeye staff in 2006.

As the top assistant under Joe Breschi his last three seasons, Myers served as the offensive coordinator for the Buckeyes, oversaw recruiting and handled other aspects of the day-to-day operation of the men's lacrosse program.

In 2008, Myers helped guide the Buckeyes to a share of the Great Western Lacrosse League regular-season title and an at-large berth into the NCAA tournament. The team downed Cornell on the road for the program's first NCAA tournament victory and berth in the quarterfinal round. He was the offensive coordinator as the Buckeyes ended the season third in the NCAA in scoring offense (13.2 goals per game) and extra-man offense (45.7 percent). Ohio State ended 2008 ranked seventh nationally.

Myers also was on the Buckeye staff when the squad earned a spot in the NCAA tournament in 2003, the first appearance in program history, and shared the GWLL title.

Myers played for Springfield College in Massachusetts, earning Division III All-America honors in 2001. He was a three-time All-NEWMAC selection and was the 2000 conference player of the year.

A native of Kennebunk, Maine, Myers graduated from Kennebunk High School in 1997. He was a two-time high school All-American and participated in the 1997 North-South All-Star Game.

Myers graduated from Springfield with a degree in sports studies/physical education in 2001. He married the former Julie Cowles, also a Springfield College graduate who now is a physical education teacher at Walnut Springs Middle School, Aug. 19, 2006. The couple, whose first son, Mason, was born in May 2010, lives in Columbus.

Myers' brother, Pat, was a four-year letterwinner for the Buckeyes from 2000-03, a two-time All-Great Western Lacrosse League honoree and the conference rookie of the year in 2000. He now is the first assistant coach and offensive coordinator at North Carolina after stints at Cornell and Bucknell.

ASSISTANT COACH ANDREW BAXTER

FOURTH SEASON

Andrew Baxter is in his fourth season as the top assistant coach for Ohio State. Baxter came to the Buckeyes following four seasons as the first assistant at Drexel University and five years overall with the Dragons.

Baxter is the defensive coordinator for the Buckeyes in addition to leading recruiting efforts.

He served as the offensive coordinator for Drexel from 2004-06 before switching to the defensive coordinator role in 2007. Under Baxter, the Dragons flourished on defense, ranking seventh nationally in scoring defense in both 2007 and 2008. They also recorded the nation's fifth highest face-off win percentage in 2008 en route to winning the Colonial Athletic Association regular season championship. Prior to his time at Drexel Baxter spent two years (2003-04) on the sidelines at Colgate.

Baxter earned his bachelor's degree in movement and sport studies from Springfield College in 2001, where he played two seasons with Buckeye head coach Nick Myers and helped lead the team to two Division III NCAA Tournaments.

A native of Rochester, N.Y., Baxter graduated from Brighton High School. He and his wife, the former Marika Hartog, also a Springfield College graduate, were married June 7, 2009. The couple resides in Columbus with their daughter, Rae, who was born Nov. 10, 2010.

ASSISTANT COACH DAVE DOBBINS

THIRD SEASON

Dave Dobbins is in his third season as an assistant coach at Ohio State. Dobbins joined the Buckeyes after serving six years as an assistant coach at Salisbury University (Md.) with one of the most successful collegiate men's lacrosse programs in the country.

Dobbins works primarily with the Buckeye offense, as well as with face-off specialists and special teams.

The 2005 Division III Assistant Coach of the Year, Dobbins served on the staff at Salisbury from 2003-09. The Sea Gulls won four Division III National Championships and were a national runner-up once during Dobbins' tenure. He coached 47 All-Americans, including 19 at midfield, and five national players of the year. Prior to joining the Salisbury staff, Dobbins coached two seasons at the middle and high school levels in New York.

Dobbins was a four-year letter winner at Colgate University. The Webster, N.Y., native earned his bachelor's degree in mathematics from Colgate in 2001 and his master's degree in education from Salisbury in 2005. He taught high school mathematics at two Salisbury-area high schools for five years.

Dobbins and his wife, Erin, live in Columbus. They are the parents of the late Colleen, who passed away in March 2011.

VOLUNTEER ASSISTANT COACH JUD HALL

FIRST SEASON

Jud Hall, an Upper Arlington native and recent graduate of Ohio Wesleyan University, is in his first year as the volunteer coach for the Ohio State men's lacrosse team. He works with the team's goalies and assists with the Buckeyes' defensive schemes.

Hall, a team captain for the Battling Bishops as both a junior and senior, was a part of back-to-back North Coast Athletic Conference championship squads in 2010 and '11 and the team participated in the NCAA tournament all four years (2008-11). He was a first team all-league selection in 2010 and an honorable mention choice in 2009.

At Upper Arlington High School, Hall was a member of state championship teams in 2005, '06 and '07. The Golden Bears won the 2007 Midwest title and were Midwest runner-up twice. He was a high school All-American in 2007.

Hall earned his bachelor's degree from OWU in sociology and anthropology and also completed a minor in history.

DIRECTOR OF OPERATIONS MARK BERGEY

THIRD SEASON

Mark Bergey is in his third season as the director of operations for the Buckeyes after spending 2009 as Ohio State's volunteer assistant coach.

Bergey served as an assistant coach and defensive coordinator at his alma mater, Western New England College, for two seasons prior to joining the Buckeyes. In 2008 the squad was ranked in the Top 10 the majority of the season and the Bears ended the 2007 campaign ranked third nationally. The team made the NCAA tournament quarterfinals both years Bergey was on the staff.

Bergey was a four-year standout for the Golden Bears, serving as the team's captain in 2006 and helping lead the squad to ECAC Division III New England championships in 2004 and '05. Bergey, who was named the team's Unsung Hero in both 2003 and '05, was a two-time All-Pilgrim League selection and played in the United States Intercollegiate Lacrosse Association (USILA) Division III North-South Senior All-Star Game.

A native of Ambler, Pa., Bergey earned his bachelor's degree in sociology from WNEC in 2006.

2011 SEASON IN REVIEW

NOTING THE 2011 BUCKEYES

- The win over then-No. 3-ranked North Carolina Feb. 19 in Ohio Stadium was the first win over a Top 3 opponent in program history.
- Ohio State hosted the fourth-annual Showdown in the Shoe prior to the Ohio State football spring game. A crowd of 12,317 (one of the Top 5 on-campus crowds this season) was on hand by halftime of the lacrosse game. The game was televised live by Big Ten Network.
- Matt Kawamoto was named the ECAC Defensive Player of the Year and an honorable mention USILA All-American. It was Ohio State's 14th All-America honor since 2000 and the 41st in program history. Kawamoto is the first defenseman to be named an All-American since Greg Bice in 2003 and '04.
- Paul Beery was honored as Ohio State's nominee for the Big Ten Sportsmanship Award.
- The Buckeyes won the unofficial "Big Ten Championship" with a three-overtime victory at Penn State. Logan Schuss had the game-winning goal in the contest.
- Ohio State earned a spot in the inaugural ECAC Tournament, hosted by Denver.
- Sophomore Logan Schuss led the Buckeyes in scoring for the second-consecutive year his second 50-point campaign. He extended his point streak to 30 games (each outing of his collegiate career) and has 108 points in just two years.

HISTORY IN THE SHOE

April 19, 2008, the Ohio State men's lacrosse team set NCAA regular-season and on-campus attendance records when 29,601 fans watched the Buckeyes down Denver prior to the football team's spring game in Ohio Stadium. By the end of the lacrosse game, more than 50,000 fans were in the 'Shoe as the Buckeyes closed out a 20-13 victory over the Pioneers in a Great Western Lacrosse League contest.

The following year, the Buckeyes broke their own record when 30,192 were on hand when attendance was taken during the contest between the Buckeyes and Notre Dame April 25, 2009. The football spring game went on to set a national attendance record of 95,722, with many of those fans in the seats before the lacrosse game ended.

The 2010 edition again broke the national records, as 31,078 watched the Buckeyes down Air Force, 10-6, in an ECAC Lacrosse League game. The contest was televised live on the Big Ten Network, marking the first men's lacrosse game broadcast live on the network. The 2011 edition of the game, with Ohio State hosting Fairfield in a league game, also was televised live by BTN.
